

Some Random Thoughts on Poverty

By Dorothy Day

Marriage, 46 (October 1964):20-25.

Summary: Embraces spiritual poverty and describes the growing popularity of it. Discusses the injustice of usury and the difficulties of the destitute. The remedy to poverty is “the acceptance of voluntary poverty.” (DDLW #121).