

Things Worth Fighting For?" (Letter

By Dorothy Day

Commonweal, 48 (May 21, 1948):136-137.

Summary: War does not defend faith but rather affluence. Harshly criticizes those who speak of a Christian heroism in war and states that America is not a Christian nation, and should confront its hypocrisy. (DDLW #83).