

It was a Good Dinner

By Dorothy Day

Commonweal, 32 (August 23, 1940):364-365.

Summary: Describes what it takes to run a food line three times a day. Tells of the bills that pile up and the donations which keep the line going. Hundreds are fed daily, and there always seems to be just enough. (DDLW #74).