

Dorothy Day

Commonweal, 27 (April 15, 1938):683-684.

Summary: States that the Houses of Hospitality supply one of the means to a new social order. Yet it must be created by the people and not the state. Encourages a lay apostolate to take responsibility for the poor and provide a Christian solution to social problems. (DDLW #63).